Talk: Kiwi take to Wellington hills - Capital Kiwi Project

Speaker: Paul 'SCRATCH' Jansen, Capital Kiwi Project and DOC

Scratch will talk about the Capital Kiwi Project whose mission is to restore a large-scale wild kiwi population to Wellington's backyard.

It is the country's largest community-owned mustelid-trapping project and the second largest anti-stoat network after DOC's Murchison Mountains programme.

In September 2022, a permit was granted by DOC for the transfer of up to 250 N.I. brown kiwi over the next 7 years. November 2018 marks the arrival of the first 13 birds.

All welcome. Gold coin donation appreciated
